For centuries Buddhists and Muslims have lived peacefully together as one family in Tibet.

His Holiness wishes to highlight this relationship to the world to expound on an open dialogue among friends.

At a time when the world is experiencing and witnessing more suffering and rising tensions between faiths, it is the goal of this gathering to promote open discourse about our commonalities centered on dignity, respect, love, and compassion.

His Holiness the Dalai Lama is reaching out in an historic event, embracing his Muslim brothers and sisters, and including other world faiths, to foster mutual understanding and to celebrate our common humanity.

Join us as we gather with one voice representing the overwhelming majority of people of faith who live moderate and normative lives of service, mercy, and compassion.
